The Spirit of "76"

We are the class of "76", graduating on
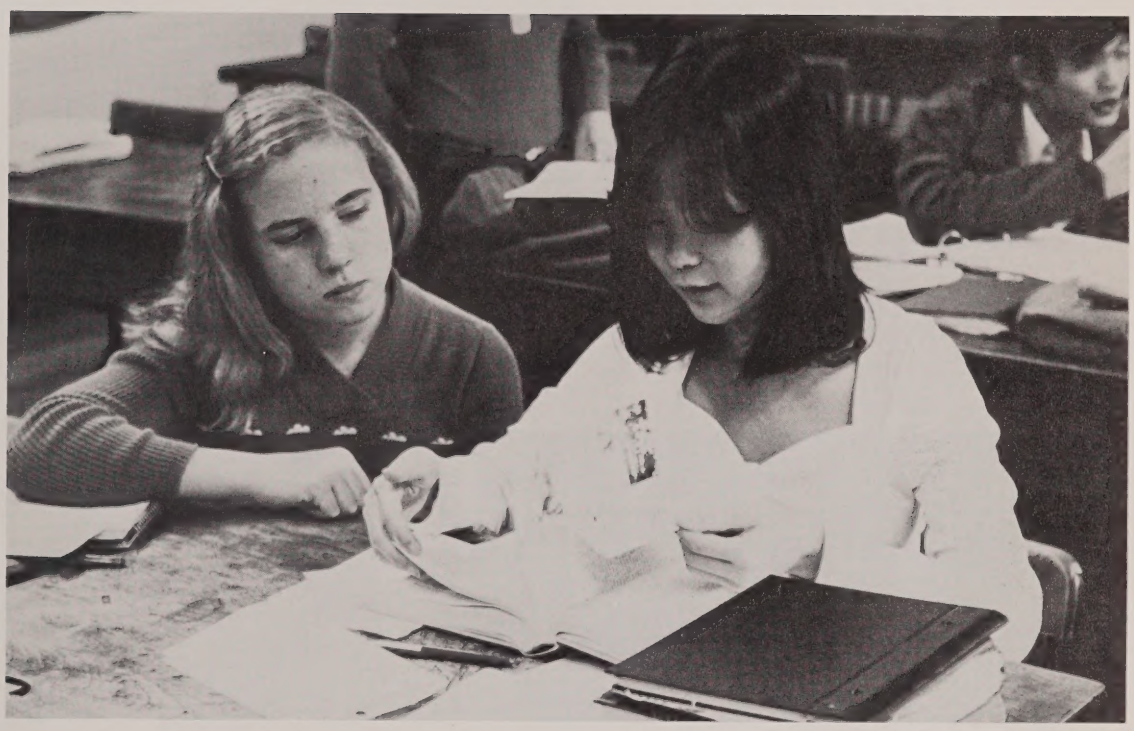
America's birthday.

Through years of studying and learning,

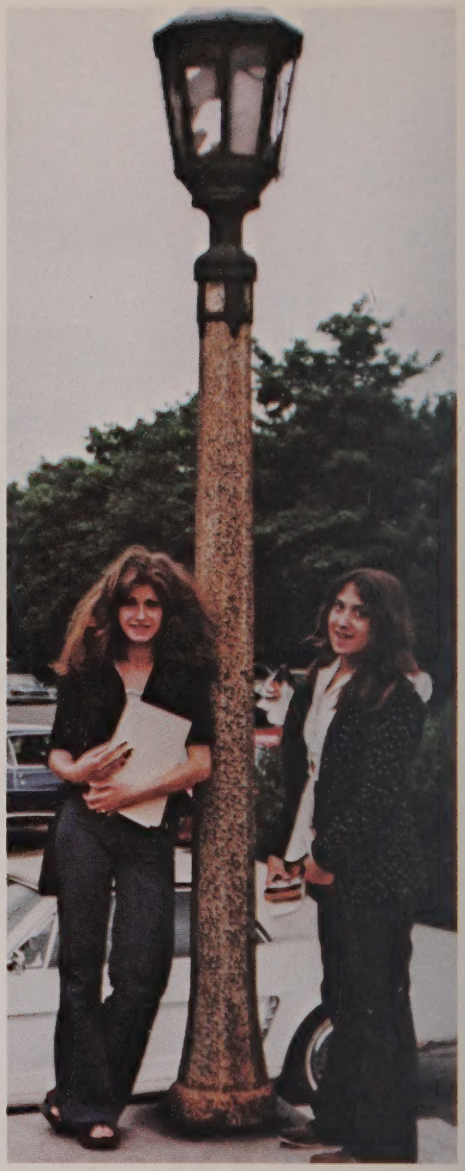
We have prepared ourselves to build on the dreams of our forefathers.

The Reenactment of the Battle of Bunker Hill

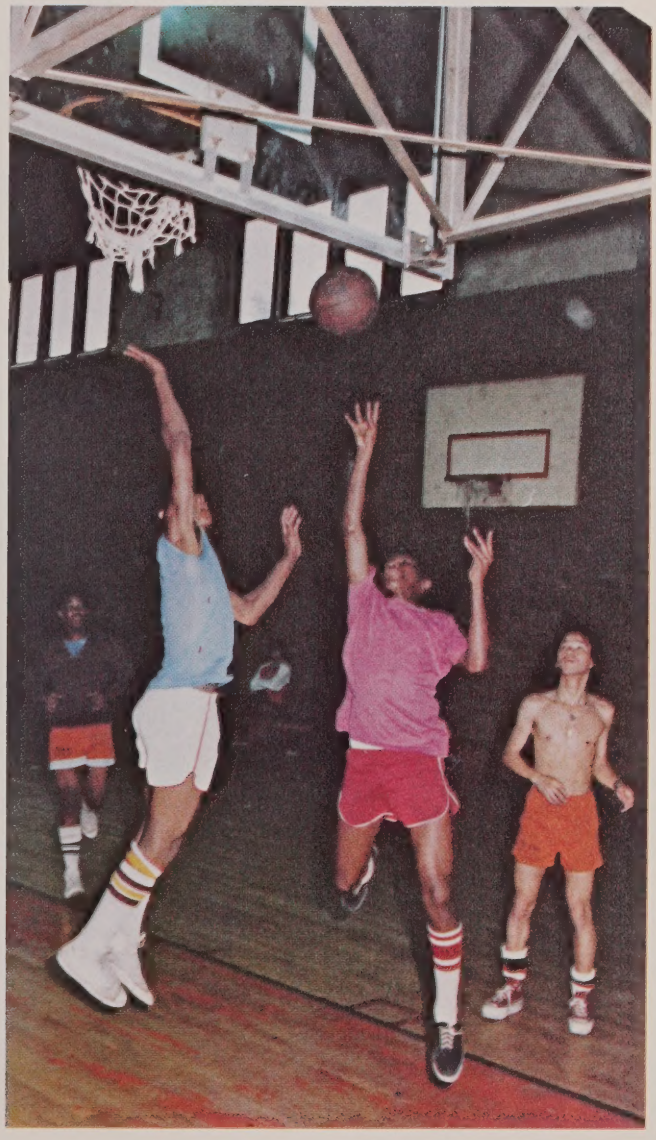


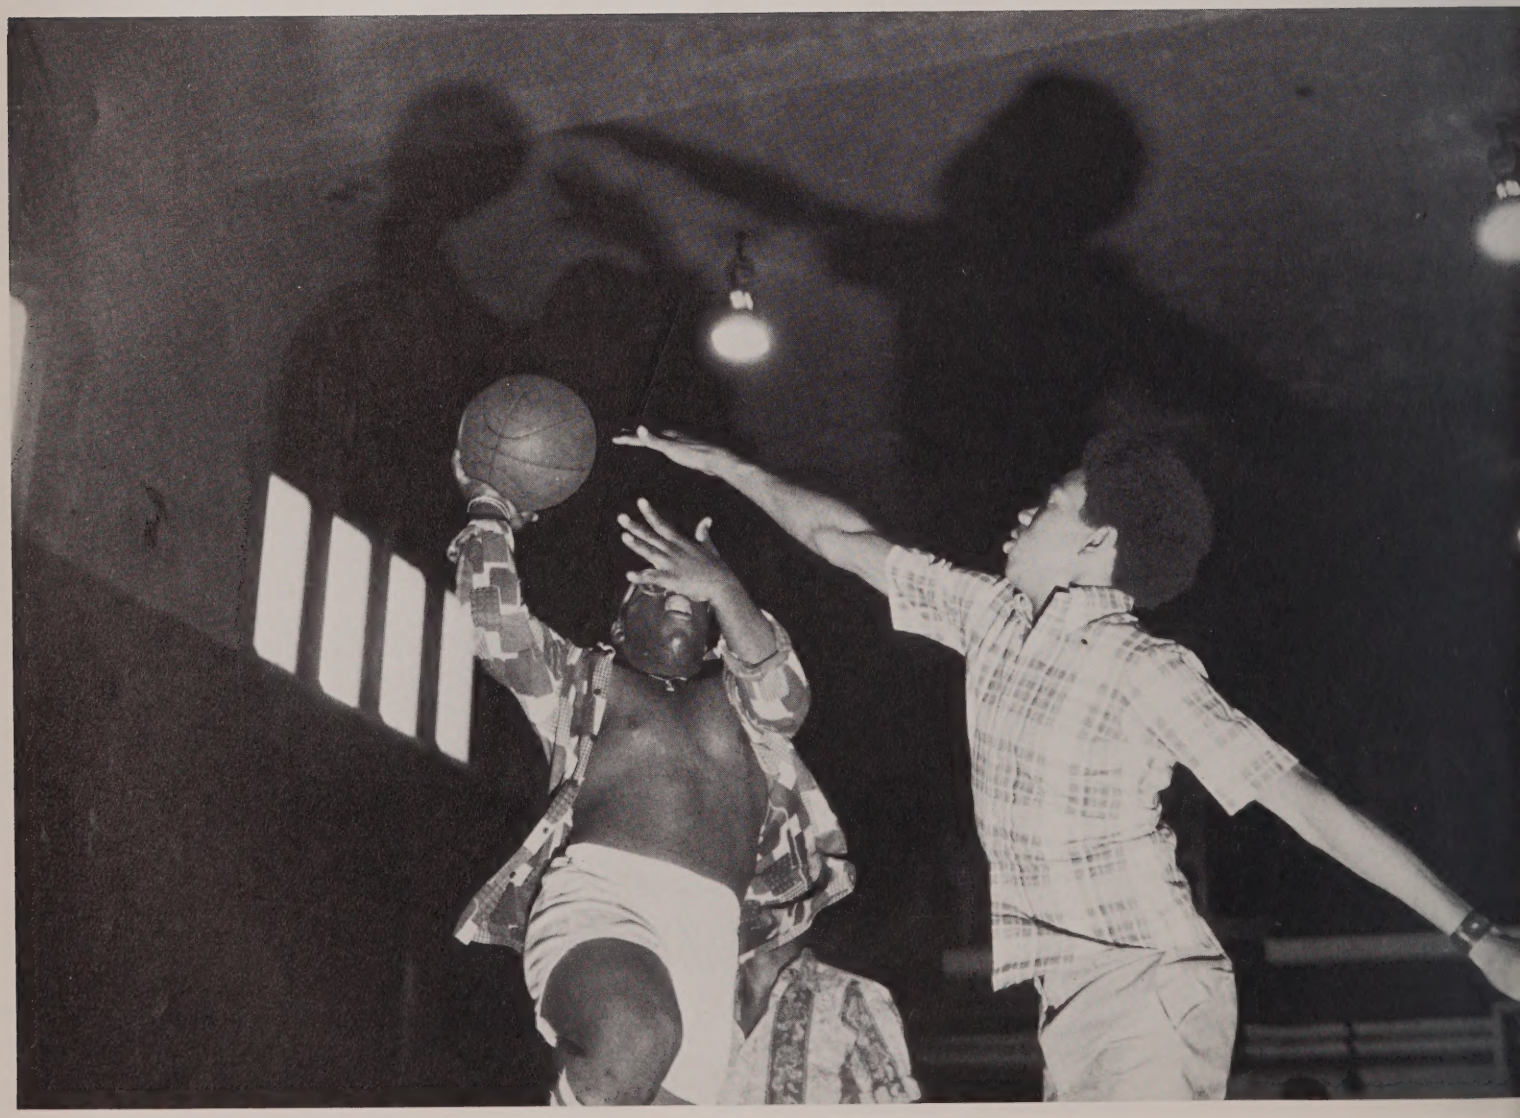
661-03,08
662-01
669-01
681-01
701-01,02,03

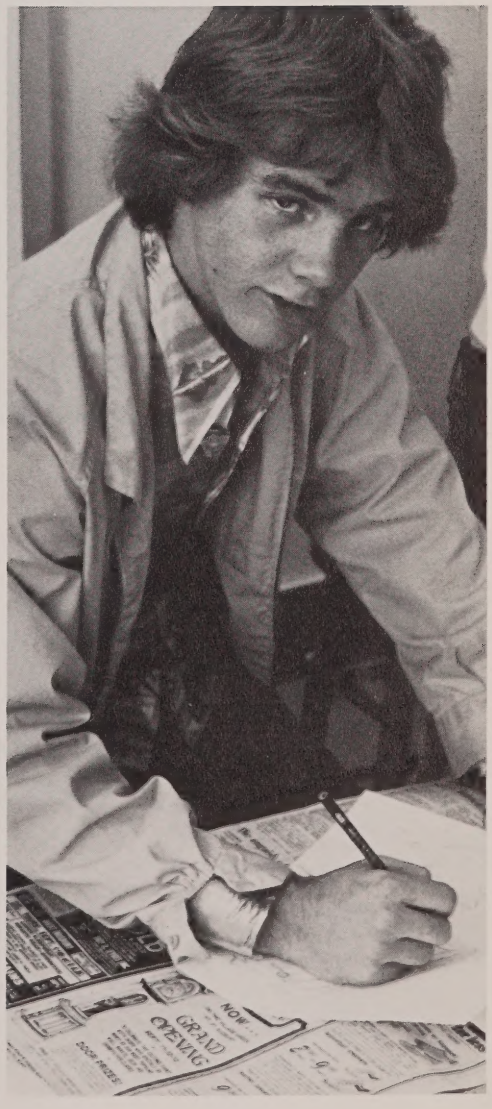
Like the stars,
we are different.



But we are here
for the same purpose,
to fulfill our dreams.







NOW
GRAND OPENING

So lookout, America!
Here we come,

With new ideas,
New energy,
And a new sense
Of independence.

BRITISH FIR ON AMERICANS

Redcoats Clash with Boston Patriots; 3 Killed, 10 Wounded

NEW YORK, March 6, 1770—From all over the nation there came reports today of indignation meetings and intensification of political pressure against the Crown as a result of the killing in front of the Town House, in Boston, last night, of three patriots and the wounding of ten others. Several of the injured are expected to die. They stood their ground before the fire of British soldiers garrisoned in that city, thus bringing to a climax the long-standing differences between a colonial population desirous of the freedom to determine its own way of life and a motherland adamant, tyrannous, and oppressive. This unparalleled incident in the history of our relations reached a boiling point with clashes between soldiers and troops at a

Football

This season was a good one for the Brighton High School Bengals. Knowing they would have a competitive year ahead of them, they trained very hard at camp. The first game of the season ended in a 23-8 loss to Newton South. It was a non-league game, and Brighton came back to win its next three games, league games, defeating Dorchester 6-0; East Boston in a close 3-2 score; and Hyde Park 7-0.

At this point in the season Brighton was tied for first with Roslindale, but the next week Rosie came up with sole possession of first place when Brighton lost 12-7. The next two games were lost to division one, top ten teams, English and Ringe Tech.

It was on a cold and rainy Thanksgiving day that Brighton made a comeback and defeated Charlestown in their annual game. Overall, it was a good season. Brighton ended up with a 4-1 league record which would have put them in first place, but the Physical Education Department removed the one tie on East Boston's 5-1-1 record, therefore putting the Bengals in second place.

Carl Baggs, Jim Timmons, and John Griffin were named All-City, and Bob Walton was named All-Scholastic linebacker.

THIRD ROW: Larry Walsh, Al Gravline, Tommy Wertz, Chucky Periera, Flitcher Hillman, Curtis Perry, and Al Fulcher.

Cheerleading

Overcoming the problems of losing girls and getting off to a late start, the cheerleaders worked hard all year. The squad consisted of very enthusiastic girls who braved rain and cold on Thanksgiving Day to cheer the Bengals to victory. They were a good squad who improved as the year went on. Led by Co-Captains Cheryl Kelly and Debbie Arnold, they also cheered the basketball team on to victory at Martha's Vineyard.

Volleyball

The Brighton Volleyball team this year, like other years, had its problems. Due to the teachers' strike the team was not able to practice and consequently lost its first few games. Once the team began practicing, however, (often until 4:00) it began to win games and concluded the season with eight wins and six losses and missed the state tournament by only one point.

The seniors leaving the team are Camille Anderson, Michele Brady, Daphne Cosmidis, and Rita Tempesta. They will be missed next year, but they worked hard to teach the younger members of the team and leave a good nucleus behind.

Soccer

The soccer team started the season with a "winning season" attitude. This spirit went on even though we lost two of last year's stars to other high schools, and the team managed to win five of its toughest games. The best played game was a 1-0 loss to East Boston. But the most exciting victory was over Tech. The team had to play that game with only 9 players due to a bus mix-up. The team will always remember the looks on the faces of the players and coach of Tech.

The outstanding players were Harry Botsivales, Milton Toptsikiotis, Horacio Gonsalves, and George Pitsilis.

The team is grateful for the assistance of Nancy Rothwell, Kerin Kelly, Frances Economos, and Olympia Tsampas for their constant support and work. The incomparable Christopher was an excellent player-manager.

Basketball

The Brighton basketball team played the most competitive schedule in the school's history during the 1975-76 season.

Perennial powers English, Technical, Dorchester and Hyde Park were the traditional foes while we added Don Bosco, Martha's Vineyard and Roxbury High.

Seniors and Co-Captains Kevin Ellis and Willie Strothers provided much of the offense, averaging 14 and 13 points respectively, while Larry Smith came on with a rush to become a valuable sixth man, averaging 8 points.

Steve Terp, Ben Chin, Stan Kelly and Curt Dixon provided the club with excellent team depth when dependable reserves were needed. Al Smith became the team's point guard and his overall quickness enabled Brighton to run a fast break offense.

Juniors Jim Mitchell, 17 points per game, Howard James and Bob Walton added scoring balance and rebounding while 5'6" soph. Chris Jennings and 6'6" soph. Mark Ward rounded out the starting club.

Girls' Basketball

Despite having only eight consistent members on the team the Girls' Basketball team has posted an 11-1 record as the yearbook goes to press. The only loss was to Charlestown. It was a one point loss and was disappointing to the team.

Through a lot of hard work and determination, the team now stands in second place.

The starting varsity consists of three seniors; Co-Capt. Michele White, Larica Perry, and Co-Capt. Camille Anderson. Rounding out the starting five are juniors Donna Cook and sophomore Elizabeth Kotsoglou. Valerie Scott, Teresa Kinnard, and Deborah Perry supplied good support coming off the bench.

The team has worked hard, improved a great deal, and, with the continued help of Coach Hammond, expects to conclude a successful season by doing well in the State Tournament.

Hockey

Brighton's 75-76 Hockey Team has been beset by an unusual number of injuries. Captain Robert Morrissey has had a dislocated elbow; Joseph Pecci, torn ligaments; and Joseph Antonelli, a broken collar bone. Added to these serious injuries have been constant attacks of the flu. As a result of all the health problems the team has gotten off to a slow start and, as the yearbook goes to press, has a 3-3-1 record. The high point of the season so far was the South Boston game. The team played its best game and was leading Southie for a period and a half. Seniors on the team include Robert O'Conner, Brian McCall, Ken Kidik, Rufus Stok, Gregg Sullivan, and Manager Daniel Smith.

The team hopes to conclude its season with a strong winning record.

Bowling

Although bowling seems like a "silent sport" at Brighton High, the team practices faithfully once a week from October through March. A city wide tournament is held with all city schools participating and competing for three consecutive weeks, at the end of which trophies are awarded.

The team members are Mary McGuiness, Elaine Chu, Sherry Skidmore, Susannie Cheung, Carol Ng, Donna Goon, Dalia Pryce, Maria Kazangoglou, Anna Chafetz, Athena Hatzieleftheriadis, Pauline Pagliocca, Patty Lung, Arlene Cohen, Tim Witherspoon, and Laricia Perry.

Swim Team

The Brighton High School Swim Team competed for the fifth year last fall. The team was in a rebuilding year and ended with a record of five wins and three losses. Janice Burke, an outstanding backstroker, placed first in all backstroking events entered. The two other seniors were Mary Hanlon, a fine 200 yd. swimmer, and Nancy Simmons, our official scorekeeper who will be missed next year. Each member of the team did her best and made this a good season for the swim team.

FIRST ROW: Anne Trachdenberg, Katy Hanlon, Mary Hanlon, Janice Burke, Nancy Simmons, and Sonia Boyd. SECOND ROW: Peggy McNamara, Tara Cummerford, Rhonda Munday, Ann Cunniff, Ruthy Cardarelli, and Mrs. Johnson.

Track

The Brighton track team suffered this year because of changes brought on by the new school system. Nevertheless, in every meet the team members have always placed. Timothy Pitts and Mark Ashe, both seniors, usually finished first and second in the 45 yard hurdles. Mark Deutschmann throws the shot put, and has placed first in every meet. He usually throws over 40 feet. Greg Chin was a very good prospect but due to illness he wasn't able to compete, which was a great loss to the team. Peter Ho is another senior who contributed a lot to the team. Gary Saunders, the last of the seniors on the team, was the team's most consistent winner. He competed in the 50 yard dash, high jump, and the 440 relay.

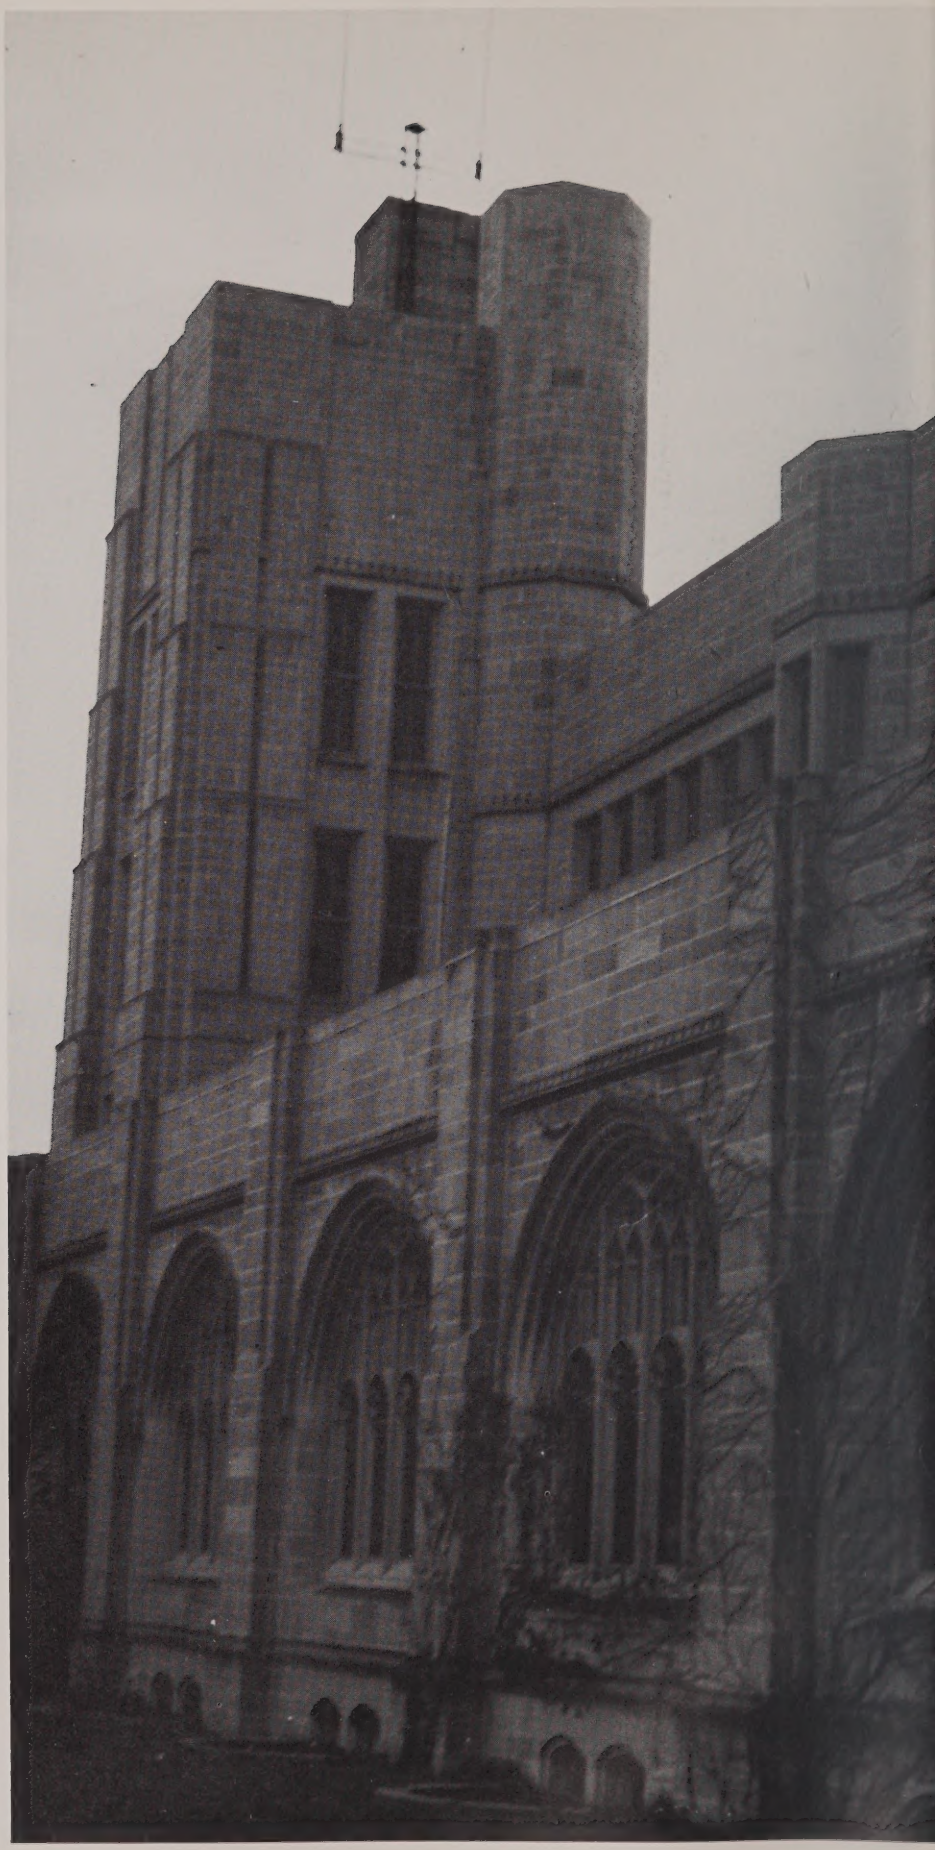
Boston Parks and Recreation



So look out, America,
Here we come!
With new ideas,
New energy,
And a new sense
Of independence
